FATHER & SON PRE-SEASON BASEBALL CAMP JANUARY 8TH, 9TH, & 10TH

This all skills camp is designed to get Fathers and Sons together before the season begins for three days of absolute fun, teaming up with each other to learn the finer fundamental points of the game and understanding what it takes to play baseball.

Each Father will come out of the camp with:

- Confidence to teach your son the different skills of the game.
- Understanding that patience is a very important part of the game.
- An appreciation for what my son is doing and knowing it's more difficult to do, then watch.
- Communication. Now, when you work together with your son, he'll listen, because you've both heard the same words that describe the different skills.
- A better understanding of the game. Things have really changed since you've played.

Our goal is to provide information/drills which will help each dad understand the importance of physical movements and positions, as well as help ease the frustration involving the mental side of the game.

The best part of this camp is it's held in the evening and on the weekend. so Fathers can attend after the working hours and enjoy some quality times with their kids.

On Friday evening from 5-8 we'll enjoy a Pizza and Potluck Party and have class discussions, trivia contests and hit in the batting cage. Saturday from 9-12 noon we'll focus on offensive skills and Sunday from 1-4 p.m. we'll work on defensive skills and our kids vs. the Dad's contests and Olympics.

Want to see if your son is better running the bases than you? Feel like taking a few hacks with the old wood bat? Can you rev up your arm for a few days? Find out and join us for a fun filled evening and two days on the weekend. To sign up contact Rich Taylor at:

MINI CAMPS

Our mini camps are designed to develop sound pitching and hitting fundamentals, get a player ready for a competitive game environment, creating new habits and giving each child the ability to apply the skills so they can remain relaxed and positive in a practice or game situation.

Players will learn the four cornerstones of pitching, biomechanics, arm care and develop mental cues that will help them maintain a level of consistency during the game. In regards to hitting, players will learn the four absolutes of hitting and a plan to use at the plate in every game. Every player will be guaranteed 400-500 instructional swings before the completion of the camps.

The small group ( 4 players per mini camp ) ensures quality instruction and personal attention. To sign up, check the enclosed schedule and e-mail Rich Taylor at rjtaylor23@yahoo.com . All mini camps are held indoors. The cost is $95 for the four one hour sessions.
