

Tee-ball Parent Orientation Night
Morgan Hill Pony Baseball
Wednesday, Feb. 27 @ 7:00-8:30 PM
New Location: Morgan Hill Community Center, El Toro Rm

* Attendance Required for all Shetland Tee-ball parents ****

A fun and interactive seminar

This fun evening is designed as an informative and educational seminar for all parents and coaches. It's important for everyone to start with the basics so a continuity of instruction and education can begin at the youngest age level within our league.

Designed for all parents

All parents, both new and returning, are required to attend, especially parents that plan on helping out at practices. Every parent will come away with a good understanding of how things are done and taught in the league. Coaches will increase their knowledge by picking up new ideas.

Orientation topics include:

- Teaching Your Children About Sports
- Safety on the Field
- Throwing Mechanics
- Catching Mechanics
- Hitting Mechanics
- What Shetland Players Should Know at the End of the Year
- Parent & Coaching Qualities
- Parent-Coach, Player-Parent and Parent Coach Relationship
- Question and Answer & Discussion

Guest Instructor: Rich Taylor

With over 25 years experience in coaching youth sports, particularly baseball, Rich Taylor has established himself as one of the top clinicians in the country. Formerly the pitching coach at Pepperdine University and a scout for the Chicago White Sox and New York Mets, Taylor has also written two books, ran two baseball schools and is the current Director of National Instruction for the ACE Powerband Arm Strengthening Program. He also writes a weekly column for the Morgan Hill Times, which is soon going to be syndicated nationally. Six of his former players played in the Major Leagues and three others coach at the Division I college level, among them Chad Krueter at USC.
